

West L.A. Neighborhood Council

Special Election Edition

Got Problems? Over Development? Traffic? Gangs? Strip Clubs? Graffiti?

Board Election on November 19

The West L.A. Neighborhood Council (WLANC) will hold its annual election from 11 am to 5 pm on Sunday, November 19, at the Felicia Mahood Senior Center located at 11338 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles.

Councils are an effective voice for the entire community on issues like gangs, traffic, development, graffiti, and strip clubs.

The Council can influence decisions at City Hall. The Council is officially empowered by the City of Los Angeles to represent West Los Angeles. It is an official advisory board that is supported and funded by the City of Los Angeles.

The WLANC Board helps bring city services to the community. sets priorities for neighborhood improvement projects, influences land use decisions and holds our elected officials accountable. To run for a seat see page 2.

To vote or become a candidate download the appropriate forms at www.wlanc.com and mail the forms to the address listed on page 2.

Stakeholder Survey... Your individual Voice in Sorting Out The Issues

Stakeholders will have the opportunity to complete a community survey on Election Day. The survey will focus on six major issues important to the West Los Angeles Community. These questions are currently listed on the WLANC website.

The results of the survey will be released to the public on the WLANC's website www.wlanc.com and help guide the future actions of the Board.

How can I vote in the election?

Just complete the Voter Application Form and mail the form to Jerry Kvasnicka, an Independent Election Administrator, at the address below, or you can submit your form on Election day. No faxed or e-mailed forms will be accepted. Forms and election procedures may be found on the WLANC.com site. All forms may be mailed to:

Jerry Kvasnicka, an Independent Election Administrator
P.O. Box 41048, Los Angeles, CA 90041

Tel: 323-256-6330

Who is eligible to vote or run for a seat on the Board?

A person must be a stakeholder to vote in the election. A stakeholder is a person who lives, works, or owns a residential or business property within the WLANC's boundaries.

Another type of stakeholder is an individual who is authorized to represent the following organizations; a community service organization; an educational institution; a civic organization or a house of worship.

Each of these organizations can select only one representative to vote on Election Day. In order to vote in the election, a voter from a community service organization, an educational institution, a civic organization or a house of worship must submit a letter from the organization's board or administration selecting him/her to vote to Jerry Kvasnicka, an Independent Election Administrator on or before Election Day.

Any of the above organizations can select one candidate to run for office. Candidates from these organizations should submit their Candidate Application Form and an authorizing letter from the organization to Jerry Kvasnicka by the following deadlines: deadline for candidate's name to be printed on the ballot (no later than 10/20/06), or write-in candidate deadline (no later than 11/17/06).

Write-In Candidate Guidelines

Candidates who submitted their application by 10/20/06 will be listed on the printed ballot. Candidates who submit their Candidate Application Form and credentials to Jerry Kvasnicka between 10/20/06 and by 11/17/06 will be write-in candidates. Credentials may be a form of identification, a bill, pay stub, report card, or letter from your organization. Please go to the wlanc.com website to download the Candidate Application Form.

WLANC Launches Community Website

One of the jobs of the West LA Neighborhood Council is to inform the community about activities, meetings, and government actions and be a resource for all stakeholders.

To that end, we have launched our own website: www.WLANC.com

We have filled the site with election news, as well as information of value to everyone in our neighborhood. You can check out meetings, government resources and links to information throughout Los Angeles.

Please contact: wlanc_elections@yahoo.com if you have any questions.
